

Board Profile

Sacramento Municipal Utility District

Media Services: (916) 732-5111

Director Bill Slaton Ward Seven

Bill Slaton was first elected to the SMUD Board of Directors in November 2002 to represent Ward 7, which includes North Highlands, Carmichael, Antelope, Foothill Farms and a small part of Placer County. He served as the Board's president in 2005

A Sacramento-area resident since 1974, Slaton lives with his family in Carmichael. He is active in community and religious affairs throughout the region. Slaton is a former chairman of the board of KVIE-Channel 6, Sacramento's public television station. He is the current Audit Chair for the station. Slaton is a former member of Point West Rotary and the WEAVE Business Advisory Council. He is a former president of the Jewish Federation of the Sacramento Region and is a co-founder of the Jewish Community Foundation of the West.

Slaton graduated from the University of Texas with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He has 25 years of experience in arranging financing for public agency information technology projects. He also formerly served on the board of directors of two community banks, Sacramento Commercial Bank and Placer Sierra Bancshares.

The Sacramento Municipal Utility District is the nation's sixth-largest community-owned electric system in terms of customers served.

SMUD provides services to more than 550,000 customers (more than 1.3 million residents) over a 900-square-mile area that includes Sacramento County and a small portion of Placer County.

Visit www.smud.org, where you'll find energy and safety tips and information about the many programs and services available to SMUD customers.

April 2009