

Keeping our community strong

We're facing unprecedented times because of COVID-19, which has changed how we live, work and play. At SMUD, we're committed to the health, well-being and safety of our community and we've taken many steps to help our customers get through these uncertain times. Go to smud.org/Coronavirus to see how we're supporting our customers and community.

Here are some ways to come together virtually to support each other and support our local businesses.

- Attend free online classes, concerts, church services and more to connect with communities in meaningful ways.
- Send a thank-you note or email to let people know you see them and you're thinking of them.

- Give a shout-out to your favorite local businesses by leaving them a stellar review on Yelp, Google or Facebook.
- Buy gift certificates to local restaurants and brick & mortar retailers to help support their business.
- Donate to food banks to help those who are struggling to keep food on the table during these tough times.
- If you can, donate to artists, performers and venues to show solidarity and continue the celebration of the arts.

Please, be safe and stay well. •

Summer rates are coming soon

Remember, from June 1 through September 30, we'll change to summer rates. In the summer months, it's important to try and shift your electricity usage to times when rates are lower and use less electricity from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. weekdays, when electricity use is the highest and costs the most to get it to you.

We're here to help you keep your bills as low as possible. We have tools on our website to help you estimate the cost of running common household appliances at different times of the day and tips on energy efficiency steps you can take to find more ways to save when it matters most.

Check these out and much more at smud.org/TimeOfDay. •
