

Let's power Earth Day with a virtual art competition

Show us how you and your family are celebrating the Earth and how you can help SMUD reach our goal of zero carbon by 2030.

Email us a photograph of your Earth Day themed art using an art medium of your choice and we'll select 18 winners who will have their artwork featured in a calendar along with other special prizes. All participants will receive an Earth Day calendar with the winning art.

Learn more about SMUD's 2030 Zero Carbon Vision at smud.org/ZeroCarbon.

Contest will be open from Thursday, April 1 – Friday, April 16, 2021.

So have fun, be creative and let's power Earth Day every day!

 SMUD®
Community Education
& Technology Center

Earth Day

virtual art competition

Rules and instructions:

Contest entrant must reside in SMUD's service area.

Contest entrant must be in grades K-12.

Only one entry per person.

SMUD employees and families are not eligible to participate.

Any physical art media is acceptable (e.g., painting, sculpture, sidewalk art, diorama and etc.).

Email us a photo of your artwork.

- Contestants email a horizontal photo of only your Earth Day art in a high-resolution jpg file.
- Contestants must use a naming convention for the photo file of `firstname.lastname.schoolname` and email it to etcmail@smud.org

Questions? Email etcmail@smud.org

Deadline: Entry must be emailed by Friday, April 16, 2021

18 top winners will be announced on Earth Day, April 22, 2021.

Winning artwork will be featured in an 18-month July 2021 – 2022 SMUD Celebrates Earth Day calendar. (Winners will be asked to complete a liability waiver in order to use their artwork.)

Winning artwork will be posted on SMUD's social media and website including the winner's name and school.

Winners will receive a messenger bag, water bottle, bicycle light and many other fun surprises.

All contest applicants will receive a complimentary SMUD Celebrates Earth Day calendar.